

Books For Today's Readers: Tomorrow's Leaders

Summer Reads for

Middle School Readers

METROPOLITAN NASHVILLE PUBLIC SCHOOLS SUMMER READS FOR GRADES 5-8

Reading is meant to bring pleasure, to develop one's mind, to extend one's knowledge and understanding, and to develop one's appreciation of a global culture. These award winning titles were selected to offer opportunities for students to continue their reading throughout the summer.

This booklet was designed to provide a menu of books for middle school students. Books on many reading and interest levels, as well as, books that reflect our multi-cultural society, have been included. Books that are required reading at the middle school level were excluded from this list.

It is recommended that parents take an active interest in the selection of the books their child wants to read. Parents should encourage their child to read in depth not only authors or themes which are intriguing to them but to read a variety of texts from different social and cultural perspectives. Being involved in the book selection offers the parent an opportunity to assist his/her child in making appropriate selections and to share in the child's reading accomplishments.

“Books have made a difference for yesterday’s readers who have become today’s heroes. We must pass the legacy along by keeping literature alive. Who knows what tomorrow’s heroes will have to be? Assuredly they will need personal strength, the conviction of ideals, and compassion--the common ground for literature.”

Bernice E. Cullinan and M. Jerry Weiss, Books I Read When I Was Young, The Books of Famous People
