Nashville Volunteer Literacy Program

MEG NUGENT, Coordinator

The Nashville Volunteer Literacy Program [NVLP] teaches U.S. born adults to read and teaches English to adult immigrants. Volunteer tutors are recruited, trained, and matched with adult learners based on schedules and location preference. In addition, small group instruction and specialized classes are provided as needed.

If you can read this and can spare three hours per week, you can help. Volunteer Literacy always needs volunteer tutors. Please call for more information.

NVLP is a collaboration between the Community Education Alliance, Metro Schools, and the Nashville Adult Literacy Council [NALC], the non-profit funding arm of Volunteer Literacy. Major sponsors have included the United Way, Metro Council, Dollar General, Caterpillar Financial, Memorial Foundation, and HCA Foundation.

4805 Park Ave | Nashville, TN | 298-8060

Aquatics Program

GINNY TEMPLETON, Coordinator

Our Aquatics Program for the pools at Glencliff High School, Pearl-Cohn High School and Whites Creek High School is up and running!

Among our offerings will be swimming classes for all ages, lifeguard training, water polo, water basketball and volleyball, Water Safety Instructor® certifications, and water aerobics. Some of the additional certification courses include: CPR for the Professional Rescuer, Lifeguarding, Water Park Lifeguarding, etc.

For more information contact our Aquatics Coordinator, Ginny Templeton, at Virginia.templeton@mnps.org or call 329-8150 ext 1804.
