

New State Law Regarding Promotion from Third Grade

Regardless of your child's promotion status, we encourage ALL students to attend our summer Promising Scholars program to continue to accelerate their learning. Promising Scholars is scheduled for May 30, 2024 – June 28, 2024. Registration is open now!

Promising Scholars Website: <https://tinyurl.com/MNPSPromisingScholars>

★ Does your child have an Individual Education Plan (IEP) that provides services for reading?

Yes

The mandates in this law will likely not apply to your child.

No

(Please see the next question.)

★ Is your child within their first two years of receiving English Language (EL) services or not proficient due to the lack of English Language proficiency?

Yes

The mandates in this law will likely not apply to your child.

No

(Please see the next question.)

★ Has your child been previously retained?

Yes

The mandates in this law will not apply to your child.

No

(Please see the next question.)

★ Is your child currently being evaluated for a disability (IEP) that might include services for reading?

Yes

The mandates in this law will likely not apply to your child.

No

(Please see the next question.)

★ Did your child receive or is projected to receive a score of Below Expectations?

The district sent letters in December notifying parents of their child's predicted proficiency level, and another letter will be released in late February.

Yes

Your child is at risk of not meeting proficiency criteria. You should plan for your child to attend Promising Scholars this summer and complete high-dosage tutoring during the upcoming school year to meet the mandates in this new state law.

No

(Please see the next question.)

★ Did your child receive or is projected to receive a score of Approaching Expectations?

The district sent letters in December notifying parents of their child's predicted proficiency level, and another letter will be released in late February.

Yes

Your child is at risk of not meeting proficiency criteria. You should plan for your child to attend Promising Scholars this summer to meet the mandates in this new state law.

No

It is likely that your child will meet the state-mandated proficiency criteria.

If your child receives a score of Below Expectations or Approaching Expectations, assessment re-take options will be available May 30, 2024 – May 31, 2024, at Promising Scholars sites. It is highly recommended for all students who re-take the assessment to enroll and plan to participate in Promising Scholars.

Promising Scholars Website: <https://tinyurl.com/MNPSPromisingScholars>

